

PHASED REOPENING PLANS

May 18*

- Book drops reopen (except Poe)
- All fines waived through June
- Return materials by June 8 to allow for staff to quarantine materials

June 8*

- CCPL locations begin some in-person services
- No in-person programs/events
- Virtual programming continues

These dates are subject to change.*

Protective Measures in Place

Social distancing guidelines will be maintained by staff and in place for patrons.

CCPL staff will be encouraged to wear Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) such as masks.

72

All returned materials will be quarantined for 72 hours before being processed, re-shelved or re-circulated.

Staying Connected

50,000

During the branch closures, CCPL has produced nearly 200 virtual online programs that have been viewed over 50,000 times! These programs will continue on the library's website (ccpl.org) and social media.

CCPL expanded its free public Wi-Fi to allow access from outside of 16 of its 17 branches. Since March 16, there have been over 13,000 connections! Wi-Fi will continue being available outside all branches.

13,000

Public Resources Available

During this time of need, CCPL has shifted many of its resources to assisting the community in areas such as workforce services, small business assistance, financial and legal help, and more. Visit ccpl.org/letushelp for details.

Questions? Call 843-805-6930 or visit www.ccpl.org.