Living History Presentation

MEMORIAL WALL AREA

Join CCPL's Historian and producer of Charleston Time Machine podcast Dr. Nic Butler for a history of the Cooper River Memorial Library where he will discuss how the library was built and designated a memorial sight. He will then be joined by Liberty Hill Historical and Genealogical Society's Hester McFadden. McFadden, a native of the Liberty Hill neighborhood and retired educator, will share history about Liberty Hill and recall her experience in visiting the library during the civil rights era and how the library played a role in catapulting her educational career. Attendees will be served light refreshments and have the opportunity to ask questions.
